

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Please stop Sinclair from forcing their local stations to air this election material in clear violation of election laws. Thank you.
